

BPL is a bad idea that will be impossible to stop, once implemented. Stop now and perform nonbiased (not by the proponents of BPL) to determine interference to other services. Include use of long distance power distribution and also local distribution to the consumer site. Better yet, use public right of way to bury glass.